Jenny,

Sorry to bother you, but I'm speaking for over 118 business owners and landlords in our Pike/Pine Overlay. We have spent the last 4 weeks helping each other remove graffiti and plywood from our windows in an effort to bring our urban neighborhood closer to normal. Please remove the barricade, fencing and plywood from our East Precinct Building. Help us, support us in getting our businesses back, our many apartment residents more comfortable. Remove the squatters and open our park. Please. We support you and the SPD. We are doing our part, but the City must help us. I have taken the liberty of copying Adrian Diaz on this note. Please join us in trying to make things better. Thank you so very much, Jenny.

Mike

Thanks for the note. Let's pull people together for a conversation on that and other challenges facing Cap Hill. Would welcome the chance.

Jenny,
 Some time this week to meet for 45 min? Up here in old Riveter space or your offices.
 Either.
 There are 9 of us, Sheila/SCC, Linda Derschang, Don Blakeney, etc Residents, business owners, highly respected neighborhood leaders. Full list and background before gathering.
 We care, we are hurting, both financial and emotional. It needn't be this way, Jenny. Help us, please.
 Thank you,
 Respectfully,
 Mike

Jenny,
 It's been over a week and we've not heard back from you regarding your suggested meeting with us on Pike/Pine and CA Park.
 We are standing by....hanging on, as best we can.
 Thank you, and let's sit down, please!

Mike, the office has been trying to arrange this. As I understand it, there was a concern everything had to go through your lawyers because of the lawsuit. But I am anxious to meet.

Jenny,

Yes, good conversations with Sabrina. No lawyers, not necessary, this is not "the" or a lawsuit, but residents, business owners, property owners. We all work together in this hood. We all have worked hard these last 5 weeks to get back to some sort of physical normality. We have to.

We are just pleading for your help and understanding.

SPD is our neighbor, too. We had arranged for 130 potted flowers we were going to all plant in the East Precinct's flower boxes, just before it all flared up again.

We could meet this week or Thursday or Friday next week.

Sabrina has been very nice and helpful.

Let us help you, help us get our Precinct and Park back and back to looking normal, not like Beirut!

Thanks Jenny for your empathy.

Mike

I am more than totally in Mike. (I wasn't worried about the suit, but the lawyers had to sign off.).

We have been doing a lot across departments on how to change the "ground truth" up there. Am very much looking forward to meeting. My son and one of my brothers live on Cap Hill so I have even more interests in getting this right and soon. Jenny

 Many many thanks for your great effort and commitment in bringing us back, to what Seattle really is (on an early Spring day)
 Thank you!

Jenny,
 Thank you for the time and effort of today. It meant a lot, much appreciated, and we need to act.
 We have immediately begun an effort to show our support for you and for these actions on Capitol Hill.
 All good.

Jenny,

I was just thinking of you, and wanted to say the City, SPD, Parks, SDOT have been doing a wonderful job around Cal Anderson/Pike-Pine area.

Community members are working with the occasional homeless person sleeping in an entry doorway and find them a proper shelter. I'm staying in touch with Chief Adrian on current timing for barricade removal, as the community is prepared with fresh dirt and Spring flowers to redo all their planter boxes along 12th as well as E Pine. We will make sure to get some positive press on these collaborative efforts.

So, I just want to say THANK YOU, Jenny Durkan!

mike malone, for the Capitol Hill community

Mike,
 Thanks for this. Can my office reach out to Jack? We are trying to push on everything that helps us recover and this could fit that to a tee. People are going to want to travel. And I want them coming here!

Thanks for continuing to push on all fronts. Jenny

Absolutely! I'll alert Jack McCullough immediately, Jenny.
 Thanks for your attention on a Sunday evening
 Had a nice lunch with Chief Diaz Thursday talking about community support for the new fencing around East. We will help make it beautiful and neighborly!
 Best,
 Mike

Right! Anytime, I'll be there.
 Glass of wine better
 Spoke to J McCullough, he's standing by
